

Universität zu Köln
Historisches Institut

The Challenge of Historical Cartography

A Workshop of the ANR-DFG research team
“Euroscientia“

Historical Institute of the University of Cologne, in cooperation with the Cologne
Center for E-Humanities

*University of Cologne
Philosophical Faculty
Historical Institute
Albertus-Magnus-Platz
Room: 305/306, Hans-Rosenberg-Room
(3rd floor of the Philosophical Faculty)
D-50923 Cologne*

Day I

November 25, 2011

2 PM- 2.30 PM: Arrival

2.30 PM-3 PM: Welcome

Jakob Vogel (Sciences Po Paris)/
Manfred Thaller (CCeH, University of Cologne)

Introduction

Christine Lebeau (University of Paris I-Panthéon-Sorbonne) and Jakob Vogel (Sciences Po Paris), leaders of the project „Euroscientia“

3 PM –3.30 PM: Mapping the Past for the Future: Trends in computer supported historical and cultural cartography

Manfred Thaller (CCeH, University of Cologne)

3.30PM-4PM: Discussion (Chair: Jakob Vogel)

4PM-4.30PM h: Mapping the Republic of Letters: Visualizing Early Modern Intellectual Networks

Nicole Coleman (Stanford University, USA)

4.30PM-5PM: Discussion (Chair: Christine Lebeau)

5.15PM- 5.30PM: Coffee break

5.30PM-6PM: Comprendre les traces : usage et perspective d'un système d'information historique

Stéphane Lamassé/Benjamin Deruelle/Julien Alerini (University of Paris I-Panthéon-Sorbonne) :

6PM –6.30PM: Discussion (Chair: Petra Overath)

Day II

November 26, 2011

9 AM – 1 PM: Discussion of the cartographical- and database project “Euroscientia”

Chair: Benedikt Fehler (German Historical Institute, Paris)

Short Presentation I:

Presentation of the database project on Albrecht von Haller and the economical society of Bern. Some reflections on the cooperation with “Euroscientia”

Martin Stuber (University of Bern)

Short Presentation II:

Cartographic projects at the Institute of European History Mainz

Andreas Kunz (Institute of European History Mainz)